

Name: Bhargavi Kamble

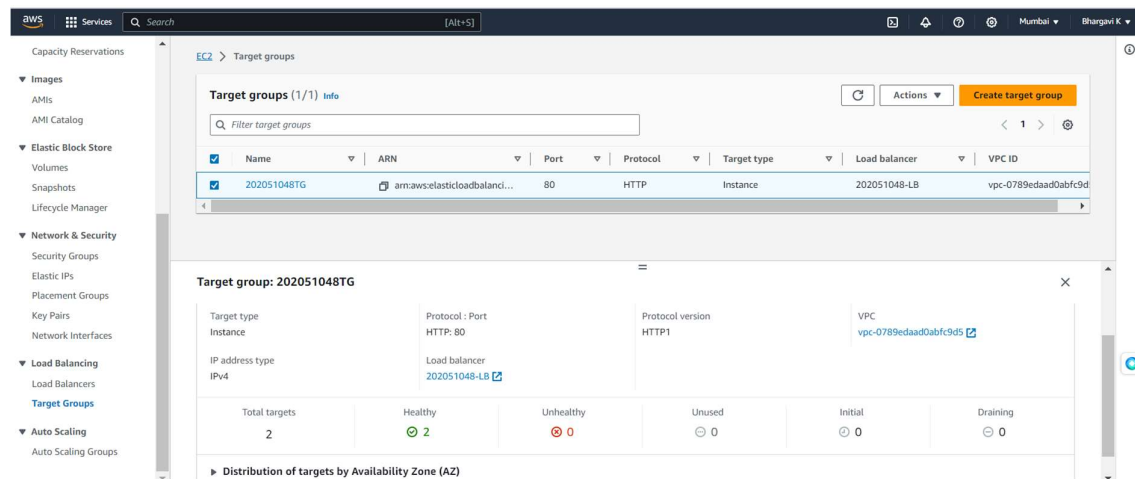

Student ID: 202051048

Assessment 04: Demonstrate Load Balancing on AWS

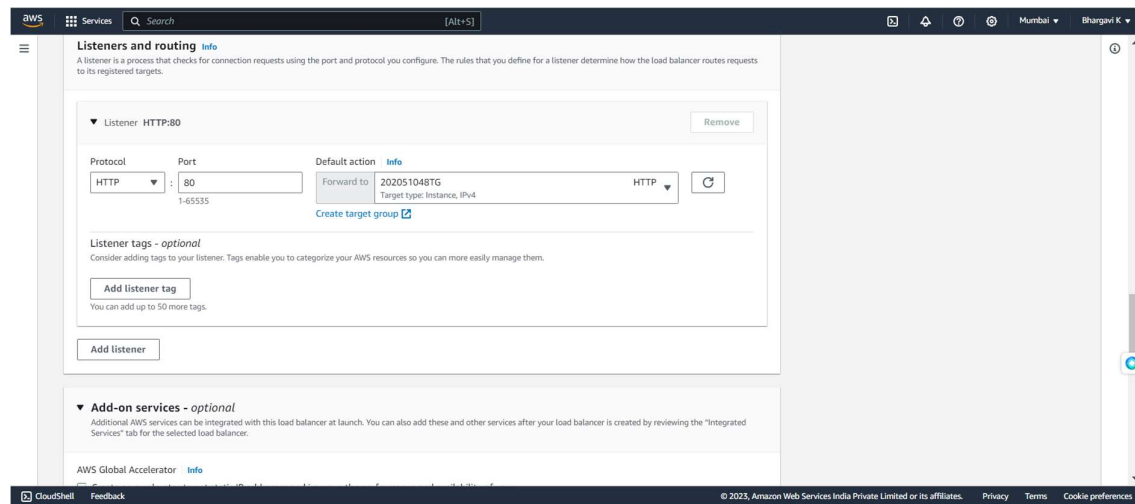

We first create two instances and configure inbound rules:

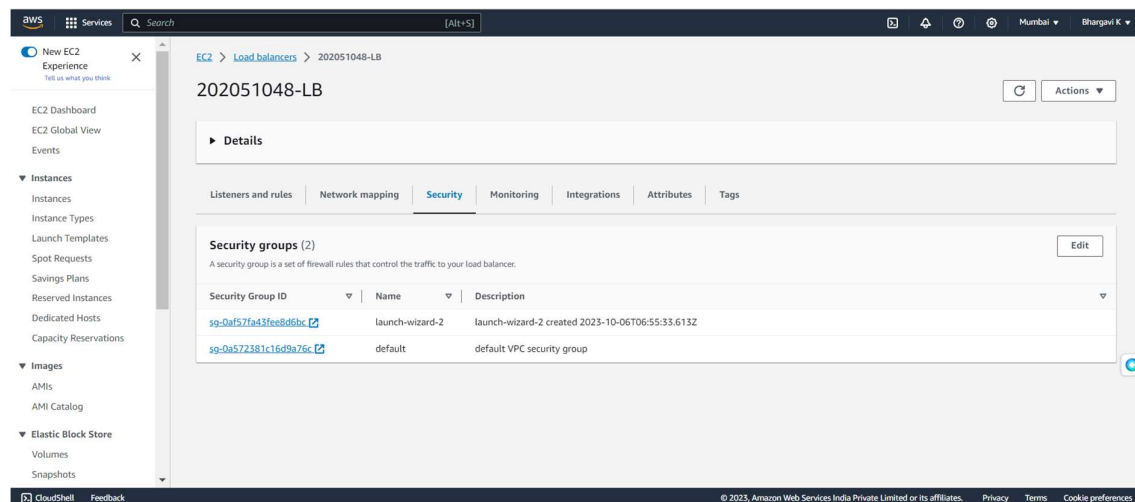

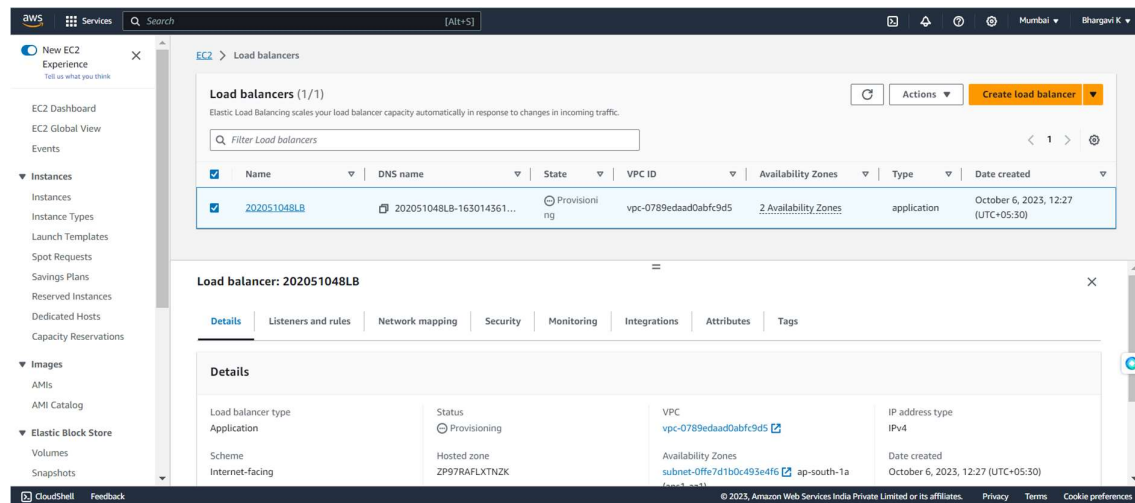

We then create target groups and add the two instances here:

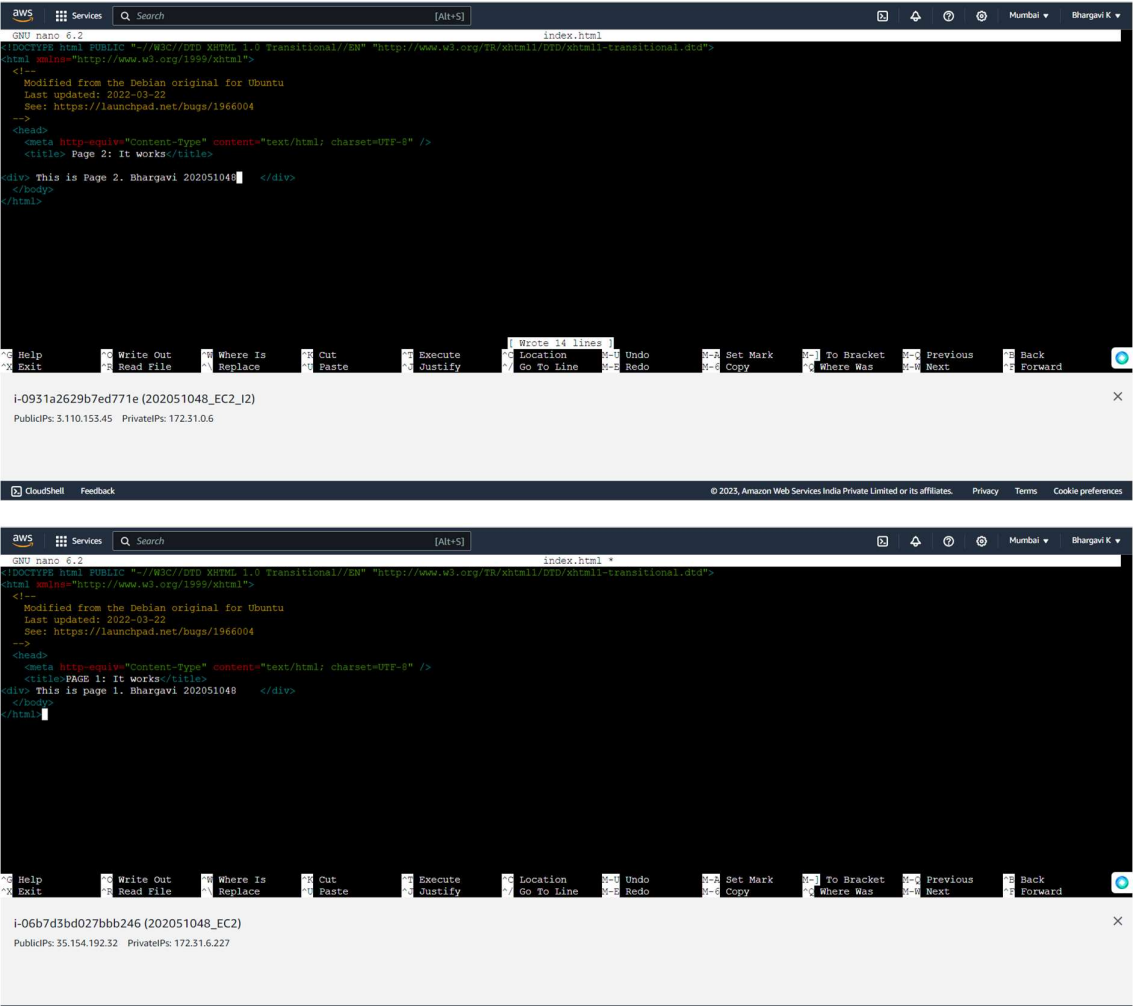

While creating the load balancer we then add the created target group here:

The load balancer is created.

We edit the html file for both the instances so that we can check the working of the load balancer.

When we refresh the page we can see that the html page is also changing.